LENTEN SERVICES IN ST. PAUL'S.

Old St. Paul's, at Broadway and Vesey-st., was filled yesterday afternoon with a motley crowd of hove, messenger boys and newsboys at the first of the Lenten half-hour services. Joining with them were about a hundred little girls from the church schools, and elsewhere were a few dozen fashiomably dressed ladies, who appeared to enjoy the picturesqueness of the throng.

Friday next there will be similar services in St. Paul's at noon. Wednesday there will be services at noon for business men, and beginning with Friday, March 15, services of a like character will be day, March 15, services of a like character win be held each Friday until the end of Lent. On the first of these occasions the business men will be addressed by the Rev. Dr. William A. Lanford, general agent of the Board of Missions. The preachers for the succeeding Fridays will be the Rev. Dr. Arthur Brooks, rector of the Church of the Incarnation; the Rev. Dr. E. A. Bradley, vicar of St. Agnes's Chapel, and the Rev. Dr. Henry T. Satterice, rector of Calvary Church.

THE FUNERAL OF PHILIP KISSAM.

The funeral of Philip Kissam took place yesterday morning at Trinity Chapel, Twenty-fifth-st., near Broadway. The service was choral, the Rev. Will-iam Vibbert and the Rev. Thomas McK. Brown officiating. There were no pallbearers. The hymns sung were "Rock of Ages" and "Lead, Kindly ight."
The body will be buried at Arden, Orange County, out final services will not take place there till be arrival of his daughters, who are on their way

SUGCESSIONS ABOUT THE SPEEDWAY.

The accompanying suggestions to the Board of Park Commissioners regarding the Harlem River Speedway were sent to the board in a preliminary report made by Calvert Vaux, the landscape architect, on Wednesday, dated February 26:

tect, on Wednesday, dated February 26;

The new road for approach to the Driveway connects directly with One-handred-and-fifty-fifth-st, and Edgecomb Road. The junction lines with these thoroughfares at present shown on the pians do not seem to me well calculated to give matisfactory first. I think, therefore, that a study for rome improvement at this important point should be prepared for the consideration of the board.

I also wish to draw the attention of the board to an unsettled matter in regard to the arrangement of the easterly sidewalk platform around the Highbridge pier.

In my judgment the sidewalk on the east side of the Driveway should be 25 feet in width, except where special circumstances prevent, in order to give proper accommodations to the public on foot, who will be sure to seek the river bank, and to allow sufficient space for the planting of shade trees. I think, therefore, that a plan should be drawn for the consideration of the board including a sidewalk of the above mentioned character as a part of the general design, with such other changes as further study may enable me to suggest.

AN INSANE MINISTER.

HE THREATENS TO JUMP FROM THE EROOKLYN BRIDGE AFTER FAME AND FORTUNE

Robert Harris, thirty-nine years old, of No. 12 East Twenty-ninth-st., was yesterday morning committed to Bellevue Hospital to have his sanity inquired into. Mr. Harris is an Episcopal minister, and was for two years the paster of the St. Augustine Chapel in East Houston-st., which is a dependency of Trinity Parish. Last fall he gave up his charge suddenly, and went to Vineyard Haven, Mass., for two months, and then to England, leaving his wife in this country. He did not look for a new charge, but insisted upon his wife's borrowing money from her family, and spent it in a most reckless fashion. He insisted upon going to expensive hotels to live, and ordered expensive clothes for himself and his

Lately he has been acting still more strangely, He said that he was going to jump from the Brooklyn Bridge, and win, in this way, fame and fortune. He also threatened to kill his wife. Thursday Mrs. Harris came to the Jefferson Market Court, and told the facts to Justice Taintor. After a long argument Harris finally consented to go to Bellevue Hospital, and was at once taken there. Mr. Harris is tall, and talks with a strong English

Three thousand callons of mash, a harrel and a half of rum and a quantity of juniper berries were seized in an illicit still in a raid personally con-ducted by United States Internal Revenue Collector and Alexander S. Bacon. A. Augustus Healy at No. 40 Driggs-ave, yesterday morning. It has been many years since illicit of New-York, had been working on the case for a month, but did not locate the still till two or three days ago, when they found it in a twa-story frame

In company with Mr. Brooks and two deputi Hawkins and Overfield, Collector Healy broke through three doors and found William Hefney and Alfred Benson at work. They were placed under arrest. The plant is one of the most complete that the department has yet discovered and includes all the requirements for turning out high-grade liquor. The still is said to have a capacity of about 200 gallons a day. The property was turned over to the United States Marshal and the two men were taken before the United States District-Attorney, where they are held for warrants from the Marshal

MORE PRAISE FOR MR. WELLES. Major Auguste P. Montant, brigade inspector o the First Brigade during the recent strike, said yes terday relative to the Brooklyn Police Department terday relative to the Brooklyn Police Department:

The sooner the people of Brooklyn recognize the fact that the police force is inadequate numerically, and find some way to obvinte the difficulty, the left ter will it be for the city and its citizens. My intercourse with Police Commissioner Welles leads me to believe that he is a most earnest man, and that during the period of the strike, with the Limited force at his command, he did his whole duty. The seat of the trooble with the police lies in the fact that Superintendent Campbell has become superamulated, and is no longer a fit person for so responsible a position. A younger man, with more force of character, is needed. I heartily agree with General McLeer in his estimate of Mr. Welles, and I may add that from the time the First Brigade arrived in Brooklyn until we left there, and at all the conferences, he was not only willing, but anxious to do all in his power for the restoration of peace in the community—a work in which he was most admirably sustained by Mayor Schleren himself.

BUSINESS COMPLICATIONS.

CHARGES THAT L. GORDON & CO. HAVE TRIED TO DEFRAUD THEIR CREDITORS.

L. Gordon & Co., manufacturers of shirts, at Nos. 17 and 19 White-st., have sold out their business to Light & Tuchmann, and some of their creditors declare that they have disposed of their property with intent to defraud them. They transferred their stock, valued at $20,000, and assigned claims to the amount of $20,000, or about $40,000 in all, to Light & Tuchmann, but for what consideration creditors say they have been unable to learn. Mr. Gordon has also given a mortgage on his house, No. 254 Madtson-st., to Mr. Tuchmann on its noise, Ao. of the ordinary was asked by Hyman Schnitzer, one of the creditors, on Wednesday, about the transactions, he is quoted as saying: "I have given a mortgage on tay house to Mr Tuchmann: you would not expect me to wait until my family were thrown into the street. I had to keep a roof over my head, so I have secured myself, so that nobody can touch the house." Concerning the transfer of the business, Mr. Gordon said he had to do it because he was a raid that his old creditors would "jump on him." One of the reasons for the transfer, it was also said, was that Light & Tuchmann had indorsed notes for Mr. Gordon, when the latter was in the business alone, to the extent of $8,000. The partners are Louis Gordon and Louis Rosuck. Mr. Gordon has been in this line of business for the last eighteen ears, and a year ago claimed to be worth ever $50,000. On July 24 last his place of business, which was then at No. 21 Walker-st., was wrecked by an explosion and fire. His stock, which he valued a $64,000, was destroyed, and his insurance was said to be about $3,000. At that time his liabilities were stated to be about $33,000, a part of which has not yet been settled up. Mr. Rosuck went into partnership with Mr. Gordon in August last, and said he had contributed $5,000 cash capital. Deputy-Sheriff Heimberger yesterday received two attachments against L.
